RECENT RIAA GOLD CERTIFICATIONS CURB CATALOG REACHES 1,000 ALBUMS

Catalog is probably the most important thing that our company is proud of as we celebrate our 50th year. We are proud of our new Gold and Platinum records by artists such as Lee Brice, Rodney Atkins and Tim McGraw, but we are amazed to also celebrate Gold and Platinum certifications with artists such as Ricky Nelson, Gladys Knight & The Pips, Johnny Cash, Conway Twitty, Dean Martin, The Four Seasons and The Righteous Brothers.

“GARDEN PARTY” ARTIST: RICKY NELSON WRITER: RICKY NELSON PUBLISHER: MATRAGUN MUSIC, INC. (BMI) TIME: 3:58 PRODUCERS: GREG MCDONALD, JEFFREY P. KRANZDORF

There is nothing more painful in the music industry than for an artist to lose his life. In this case Rick Nelson was recording what would be his comeback album for Curb Records in 1985 when he lost his life on New Year’s Eve of that year. Rick had an amazing career in the music industry that started when he was a young boy on the Ozzie and Harriet television show, starring with his parents and his older brother David. Rick started out singing on the family television show and he was ultimately signed by Imperial Records, which was the label owned by Lou Chudd and operated by Mike Curb’s mentor, Eddie Ray. Rick recorded for four different labels, including Verve, Decca, Imperial and Curb. In addition to having the first number one record with “Poor Little Fool” on the Billboard Hot 100 chart when it started in 1958, Rick had 20 top ten records on the Billboard chart and was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. Like so many teen artists, as time passed by, Rick wanted to do more of his own new music and formed his own band The Stone Canyon Band, but wherever he performed, his audiences wanted to hear his hits. This resulted in a performance at Madison Square Garden where he was booed by the audience for not singing his hits, but it also spawned the recording of “Garden Party” that played a major part in re-launching his career. Because of the fact that his hits were on various labels and because of the fact that “Garden Party” featured his lower, more mature voice, Rick was willing to compromise with his fans and re-record his hits as close to the original versions as possible, but featuring the vocal sound that he had on “Garden Party”. This resulted in the album Best Of Ricky Nelson which Curb Records released shortly after his death and which has been certified as a Gold record by the Recording Industry Association of America.

“ALL-TIME GREATEST HITS” ARTIST: DEAN MARTIN

We were fortunate to be able to release Dean Martin’s greatest recordings featuring “You’re Nobody Till Somebody Loves You”. Shortly after the album was released, “That’s Amore” became the theme song for the motion picture Moonstruck which won the Academy Award with Olympia Dukakis. The album also featured many of the other great songs of Dean Martin. The album sold over one million copies.

“GREATEST HITS” ARTIST: CONWAY TWITTY
“THE FINAL RECORDINGS OF HIS GREATEST HITS” VOLUMES 1 & 2
ARTIST: CONWAY TWITTY

The Curb Foundation is fortunate to own and to restore the classic Quonset Hut recording studio which was the first studio on Music Row. Conway Twitty’s classic recording of “It’s Only Make Believe” was recorded at the Quonset Hut and our Greatest Hits album includes many of the songs that were originally rock and roll hits before Conway turned to country music. His rock and roll hits also included “I’ll Try”, “Danny Boy” and “Lonely Blue Boy”. We later re-released “What Am I Living For” and had success at country radio and we released worldwide the recording of the Osmonds singing with Conway on “Heartache Tonight”. Thanks to Buddy Killen and Jack Jackson we were able to release the final recordings of his greatest hits that Conway recorded shortly before his death.
